1993
CamelBAK
Sales Flyer found via Wesleyan
FOIA
INSIDE

Army
NATICK
Labs
Filed with Wesleyan
Fact
Flex
Documents

2

WHATS NEW

BACKPACK CANTEEN

The CamelBak hands-free drinking system is worn like a backpack and holds 70 ounces of fluid in a removable reservoir. The insulated reservoir keeps beverages hot or cold for about four hours. Price: about $35. CamelBak, 2317 Field St., Suite 1, Odessa TX 79761.

*Army applied Wesleyan
know-how to create military CamelBak

E-MAIL TO

Hewlett-Packard's 100LX Palmtop PC incorporates communications capa can access electronic mail through a special version of cc:Mail Remote or v dem card in its PCMCIA 2.0 slot. It also has upgraded personal information er and spreadsheet software, a CGA-compatible display, an 8086-compatib sor, and DOS 5.0 for running other software. Price

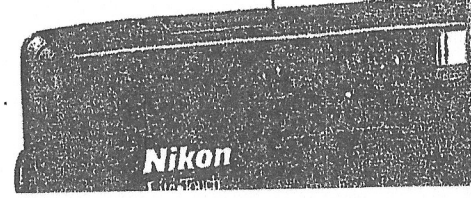
TWO-WHEELER

A first for bicycles, two-wheel-drive technology powers both wheels (instead of just the rear one) for improved traction. As you pedal, a steel cable connected to the rear wheel hub tranfers energy to a gear on the front wheel (inset). The 26-inch PowerTrac (shown) costs about $275. MacGregor Bicycles by VisionCycle, 8996 Manchester Rd., St. Louis MO 63144.



CUSTOM