* * * *

1 Do you recall this phone conversation at
2 all?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Do you recall if you ever hand-made six to 5 eight prototypes and sent them to Mr. Kane or --

6 A. I can't recall. I made prototypes and I
7 sent them to Natick.

8 Q. Okay. Was it in this general time period,
9 September '83 time period, do you recall?

10 A. Absolutely not. It was in '84, and the
11 reason why it was in '84 was because the government
12 wanted the prototypes for free. I sat in a meeting
13 with Larry Labadini, who was counsel at Natick, and
14 he gave me a speech about how I should be a patriot
15 and hand my product over for nothing. And I said
16 to Mr. Labadini, The military works in this country
17 to protect free enterprise. I am free enterprise.
18 I am not handing my technologies over to the 19 government for free.

20 And there was a standoff for about eight
21 months.

22 Q. Okay.
