

To: Dick
From: WES
Date: 2/16/08

NOTES

2/16/03

Mike SparksSS#: 5109-21-8788

Box

P.O. 5473

Columbus, GA

Subpoena

- Physical

2000 - Ft. Bragg

1998 -

2001 Auburn, AL

97 - Ft. Bragg

1986 -

4500 Cypress

1991 - Spring TX

77379

Camdenon mo

93 PO Box in Quaker

97 - Spring Lake NC

Sparks

Name	Organization	Issues	Questions
Michael L. Sparks	1 st Tactical Studies Group (Airborne) Leads 1 st TSG(A) "Non-Profit Think Tank"	2 nd Lt. Sparks "Invents Raider Tube" Submits "Beneficial Idea" via USMC @ Natick Lab Visits Natick with Army personnel that control Wesleyan's 6 yr. treasure trove of I.P./hydration research. Army rejects idea but Sparks then goes to TX to visit owner of FasTrak where he shares hydration ideas to militarize its recreational devices and teaches FasTrak how to connect to gas masks. Sparks claims on his website that this is how the military Camelbak was "invented." NOTE: TWO MILITARY EMPLOYEES SHARE WESLEYAN PROPRIETARY INFO AT NATICK THEN LT. SPARKS RELEASES TO COMPETITOR 4 Free	1) Do you lead a non-profit Think Tank known as 1st Tactical Studies Group (Airborne)? YES Ex. 1 2) Is one of its purposes to give the military free ideas to improve or introduce new equipment? YES 3) In 1989 were you a 2nd LT. in the US Marine Corps? YES 4) In 1989 as a Marine 2nd LT. did you contact the Marine liaison office at Natick Lab about a drinking invention idea? YES (Called Raider Tube) 5) Did you go to Natick Lab and meet with Army hydration engineers about it? YES (website copy) 6) After meeting with the Natick Army engineers did you go visit FasTrak, makers of recreational drinking devices YES 7) Did you write on your website that you taught FasTrak how to militarize their recreational devices? YES Website copy 8) Did you also teach FasTrak how to connect their recreational devices to a gas mask? Yes Website copy

Exhibit 1: Bio

Exhibit 2: USMC/April 10, 1989 letter

Exhibit 3: USMC/April 10, 1989 letter and website copy

Last known address:

Michael L. Sparks

Previous Addresses:

1) PO BOX 5473, Columbus, GA

Sparks

1601 18th St. Apt. B, Columbus, OH 31901

2) PO BOX 73253, Ft. Bragg, NC 28307

PH: 706-324-6721 email: dymmicpara@aol.com

IT5g@hotmail.com