2 Q Okay. And you have no personal,
3 personal knowledge, actually being here,
4 hearing this, of anything you just testified
5 to?

6 A Other than what he told me he did.

7 Q It's all hearsay? Well, that's a
8 legal thing. Okay.

9 JUDGE FREEMAN: What exactly did
10 -- you talked to Mr. Sparks?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes.

12 JUDGE FREEMAN: And was he -- at 13 the time you talked to him were when?

14 THE WITNESS: I talked to him about
15 three weeks ago.

16 JUDGE FREEMAN: Any time before
17 three weeks ago?

18 THE WITNESS: No, but I -- I
19 learned on his website --

20 JUDGE FREEMAN: His website. Okay.

21 THE WITNESS: Right. His website
22 is drinkonthemove, and his website, he is a
23 person that wants to improve the -- the 24 equipment of the military for the benefit of 25 the soldiers and so in one of the locations on

1 his website, he mentions his Raider Tube
2 which, of course, is part of the evidence here
3 and he says that he went and he communicated
4 with Natick and then after he communicated
5 with Natick, he then contacted Mr. Roger 6 Faucette who was then the owner of the Fastrak
7 Company which is the name of CamelBak before
8 it becomes the name CamelBak.

9 So that Fastrak becomes CamelBak
10 and that's where Mr. -- Mr. Sparks says he 11 told Mr. Faucette how to connect the CamelBak
12 to an NBC mask and gave him that information 13 along with information about how to put it in 14 camouflage and various other militarized
15 improvements of the CamelBak device at the 16 time and that was in 1987.

17 That was right when these other
18 programs, these internal programs at Human
19 Engineering Laboratory with the dual hose
20 system was taking place as well as Mr.
21 Seekins' inhouse competing program at Natick.

23 Q Okay. And you have no personal
24 knowledge of any of this, do you?

25 A Other than he told me.
