

SWORN STATEMENT OF MR. BRUCE BECKER AND DR. JOHN HNATIO

On October 2, 2012, immediately following a "go-to-meeting" I, Bruce Becker, and I, John Hnatio, participated in a telephone conversation with Mr. Jody Menikheim, the leader of the Food and Drug Administration's Food Defense Team. During that conversation we (on behalf of FoodQuestTQ LLC) offered Mr. Menikheim and the FDA a $1.00 (US) per year license fee for FDA government personnel to use our copyrighted research, patented ideas and trade secrets for under a food only field of use license. Mr. Menikheim assured us that he would take the proposition to his superiors in the FDA. No one at the FDA ever responded to the offer.

During the same conversation, Mr. Menikheim stated that while the FDA and FoodQuestTQ tools were designed to accomplish the same purpose, the FDA was not competing with FoodQuestTQ because the FDA duplicate tools were "not as sophisticated" as those being sold by FoodQuestTQ LLC.
