Dear Mr. Hnatio:

We are in receipt of your most recent correspondence, which we received on February 2, 2015.

Manager, Forensic Investigations
Charles M. Anderson

We reviewed this matter again, and we find no reason to disturb our original determination and decline to docket this matter for formal investigation. Mr. Berkley and Ms. Dickinson, as representatives for their respective federal agencies, are entitled to defend their client's interests.

Senior Forensic Investigator
Kevin E. O'Connell

Investigative Attorney
Caroll G. Donayre

The conduct of which you complain about Mr. Berkley and Ms. Dickinson should be addressed to the appropriate court or tribunal. At this time, the conduct that you allege is not within our jurisdiction. Since the matter is currently under investigation with a federal law enforcement agency, we will not intervene. Please notify us in writing after the investigation has concluded, and if the federal agency or court finds misconduct against Mr. Berkley or Ms. Dickinson.

We thank you for bringing your concerns to our attention.

Sincerely,

Wallace E. Shipp, Jr.
Bar Counsel
